

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crawford's Mike Reeves to Present at the Property & Liability Research Bureau's 2014 Claims Conference and Insurance Services Expo

PLRB discussion on March 17 & 18 will be on "International Claim Issues & Challenges"

ATLANTA (March 10, 2014) —Mike Reeves, Crawford's executive vice president, Global Markets, will present at this year's PLRB Claims Conference and Insurance Services Expo in Indianapolis, Indiana. The presentation, "International Claim Issues & Challenges", will take place on Monday, March 17, from 3:30-5:00 p.m. in Room 122, and again in the same room on Tuesday, March 18, from 8:00-9:30 a.m. Crawford & Company is the world's largest independent provider of claims management solutions

Reeves is co-presenting with Hans Mederer, senior vice president and global head of property claims, XL Group, Munich. The presentation is at the Advanced session level, and will review various elements in international losses, including business interruption losses, issues of access, and include several case studies illustrating the key issues and challenges. It will evaluate the future of international claims and compare the key differences in working with Lloyd's and the London market, and other insurance, and reinsurance markets.

Based in London, Reeves is responsible for business development among global clients through the cross-selling of products from all business units. Additionally, he is responsible for Global Technical Services, Crawford's major loss division specializing in complex and high volume claims

The PLRB Claims Conference & Insurance Services Expo (<http://www.claimsconf.org/>) is the largest property and liability claims educational event in the industry. It is an intensive three and a half days of 90-minute concept sessions and technical clinics, half-day workshops and seminars, exhibits, and other training and networking events allowing experienced claims personnel to study, analyze, and debate hypothetical claims situations, theories, and practices with their peers, lawyers, accountants, and other professionals.
